

JOIN OUR TRADER DEVELOPMENT PROGRAMME

Are you interested in fast paced commodity trading? Solutions focused and determined to succeed? Could you apply strong people and communication skills coupled with initiative and drive to achieve results for both yourself and the business?

Then here is a chance to try your hand at Marine Fuels Trading by applying to our Trader Development Programme. People are the heart of our business and we will take you on a journey of career development through our bespoke programme, which offers you a clear pathway to become a Marine Fuels Trader.

Based out of Singapore, Rotterdam, Athens or Dubai, the programme will nurture and develop the sales skills that you already have, combining them with our knowledge on bunker trading and the marine fuels market. We will place you in an environment where you can maximise your potential.
